

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

10th Annual Beer Week is Brewing in Frankfort

FRANKFORT, MI (September 29, 2023) - Celebrating its tenth year, Frankfort Beer Week starts pouring Monday, October 2 and wraps up Saturday, October 7 in the coastal city of Frankfort and neighboring village of Elberta. The weeklong celebration features an abundance of Michigan craft beer, beer themed events, and special offers at area restaurants and businesses.

Many area businesses are getting involved from beer donuts to beer inspired entrees and everything in between. There will be special Michigan beers on tap, a beer and cheese pairing, beer release parties, and so much more. Additionally, Frankfort Beer Week merchandise available across the community. For a full list of participants, specials, and lodging information, visit frankfortbeerweek.com

Frankfort's Oliver Art Center is celebrating beer week with an ExhiBEERtion! The beer-themed art exhibit features beer-inspired artwork from local artists. Area artists were welcome to submit works of beer art in any 2-D or 3-D medium. The ExhiBEERtion will be on display at Oliver Art Center every day during Frankfort Beer Week. Learn more about the ExhiBEERtion and the art center at oliverartcenterfrankfort.org/calls-for-art

Monday-Friday evening during Frankfort Beer Week Stormcloud Brewing Company is partnering with the local Rotary Club for Pints for Polio. For every beer purchased at Stormcloud between the hours of 5-9pm at the downtown pub, both Rotary Clubs and Stormcloud Brewing Company will each donate $1 to help fight polio worldwide. Those donations will be matched 2:1 by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. So, if 500 beers are sold during Pints for Polio, it will result in $4,500, enough to fully vaccinate 1,500 children in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Nigeria.
