FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Stormcloud Brewing Company to Release Georgia Gold Belgian Blonde Ale

FRANKFORT, MI (April 26, 2016) - Stormcloud Brewing Company is pleased to announce the upcoming release of their newest seasonal beer, Georgia Gold. A Belgian-Style Blonde Ale, Georgia Gold is a dry and crisp beer that has been fermented with iconic southern peaches and pecans. Available on draft in Stormcloud's Frankfort pub beginning May 1, the beer will be the perfect companion to a hot summer day on the freshwater coast.

With a glow of good ol' Southern charm flowing from the sweet and light fruit and nut flavors, Georgia Gold derives its name from the story of a lost railroad boxcar containing $2 million in stolen Confederate gold bullion. Supposedly sunken in the depths of Lake Michigan off the coast of Frankfort while being shipped by freighter during a storm, the tale of the Georgia Gold came from a prominent Muskegon banker who confessed of the gold's whereabouts on his deathbed in 1921. Worth more than $126 million at today's gold prices, Frankfort's Georgia Gold has raised the interest of treasure hunters nationwide.

Stormcloud intends to raise the interest of Michigan craft beer drinkers with this Southern belle of a beer. With its hint of earthy pecan bitterness balanced by a slightly sweet peach flavor, Georgia Gold will be a treasured commodity in downtown Frankfort this summer.
